

Indiana is Your HONEST-to-GOODNESS Destination

Genuine experiences are found during a visit to the Hoosier state!

Our diverse geography, eclectic foods, natural attractions and unique history are just some of what make Indiana so memorable to visit. Itinerary ideas are plentiful and designed for your pleasure and adventure.

Heritage Tours

Take a peek into true Amish culture, tour the Covered Bridge Capital of the World or immerse yourself in Indiana's Abraham Lincoln legacy. Interpretive guides welcome your group to our state's historic sites, too.

George Rogers Clark National Historical Park, Vincennes

Culinary Tours

Foodies nationwide have taken notice of Indiana and its culinary riches. Our reputation for farm-to-table excellence is matched by our award-winning wineries, microbreweries and distilleries. Groups will love tastings and tours at such places as Joseph Decuis Restaurant, Huber Winery, Trader's Point Creamery and elsewhere.

Indiana is home to 163 wineries, microbreweries and craft distilleries.

Sports & Recreation Tours

Indiana is a sport and outdoor enthusiast's paradise. Treat your groups to an adrenaline rush at Indy's famed motor speedway or a one-of-a-kind roller coaster ride in Santa Claus. Perhaps they'd prefer the sight of rushing waterfalls, views from picturesque bluffs, the serenity of beautiful beaches, or the best trails for hiking and biking east of the Mississippi River. That's all here, in Indiana. Both guided and self-guided tours are available.

Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore, Chesterton

Arts & Culture Tours

Indiana's arts and cultural profile is defined by the over 600 festivals we host on an annual basis. It's also defined by Columbus' architectural allure, New Harmony's utopian ambition, the renowned Indianapolis Museum of Art and performing arts ensembles, public art installations and museum exhibits throughout the state. Your groups will be inspired (and maybe a little surprised) by the array of cultural experiences they encounter in our state.

Indiana is Your GROUP TOUR Destination

Indiana is a state of undertold stories.

From our lovely shoreline along southern Lake Michigan to the rolling foothills that hug the Ohio River, we offer authentic experiences that call upon the beauty of the backroads, the magic of our rural communities, the luster of our capital city and the heartwarming appeal of our wonderful people and pace.

Crossroads of America

Indiana is the Crossroads of America because of its accessible central location and 14 interstate highways that make travel easy, but it's the charm of our towns and cities once you get off the beaten path that truly makes Indiana a memorable destination.

"You're Welcome!"

We liberally use this heartfelt greeting to welcome travelers as well as to acknowledge their appreciation for the unique brand of hospitality they receive in Indiana. We call it Hoosier Hospitality and take great pride in the care our visitors are provided.

Indiana Time

Most of Indiana is in the Eastern Time Zone but there are a few counties that are in the Central Time Zone in the northwest and southwest corner of our state.

Indiana Counties in Central Time Zone

- Northwest: Jasper, Lake, LaPorte, Newton, Porter and Starke
- Southwest: Gibson, Perry, Posey, Spencer, Vanderburgh and Warrick
