

Fall Mums, Farms & Market

Visit family -run farms and markets in the rolling hills of Southeast Indiana during an off the beaten path Fall adventure. Meet a friendly herd of alpaca, tour a greenhouse, visit an orchard and find locally made specialty foods and fresh produce.

Tour the greenhouses at McCabes Greenhouse & Floral in Lawrenceburg, and enjoy a "Fall Mum Decorating" demonstration or harvest sunflowers for a hands-on arrangement. Shop for gifts and home & garden accessories and sample freshly made fudge. Hands-on floral projects are also available.

Mt. Tabor Alpaca Farm outside of Aurora is a popular agritourism spot home to a large herd of alpacas, the gentle animals prized for the super-soft fiber. Enjoy a special behind-the-scenes tour of the farm, feed the alpaca some carrot snacks and learn more about these magnificent animals. Shop for alpaca fiber yarn, gloves, scarves, socks and stuffed toys.

Visit the working feed mill of Aurora Farm & Garden within Aurora's historic downtown. Started in the late 1800s as a flour mill, the mill now provides wild bird and animal feed and supplies. Tour the mill and take home a packet of wild bird seed blended on site.

Engage all the senses at Greystone Family Farm in Lawrenceburg. Enjoy fresh made lemonade and cookies served on quilt-covered tables while learning about bees and honey from a local master beekeeper. Enjoy a honey tasting and learn about the family residence, a former one-room log cabin school and outbuildings.

Nothing says Fall like a trip to the orchard! Visit Beiersdorfer Orchard in Guildord and explore the market store's selection of jams, butters, mixes and fresh fruit. Learn how this commercial orchard makes cider, enjoy a cider sample and take home a 3-pound bag of fresh-picked apples
